

Jerez de la Frontera, the town of Sherry, of Flamenco and horses.
For cultur searchers, wine and horse friends no wish remains open.

All important wineries (bodegas) of the town offer guided tours. Don't hesitate to ask us!

A must for horse friends: The visit of the The Royal School for Equestrian Horse Riding and the monastery 'La Cartuja', the roots of the Andalucian Horse. Every Year in May Jerez celebrates the world-famous 'Feria del Caballo'.

A lot of possibilities for walkers and riders in the surrounding of Jerez are available.

Jerez is known as one of the most important centers of the Flamenco. Enjoy the Flamenco Andaluz pure in one of the numerous peñas (typical Flamenco local) or at the annual Festival de Flamenco in February.

But may be you just want to visit the white tigers of the Jerez Zoo or stroll through one of the various museums.

You are looking for a Golfcourse? -- Also the formula 1 race track Jerez's is worth a trip.

The wide Atlantic beaches invite almost the entire year for a bath. Nice spas are among others 'el Puerto de Santa Maria' (15 km) and Sanlucar de Barrameda (25 km).

Jerez de la Frontera possesses its own airport, which is connected to quiet a few British locations.
The motorways to Sevilla, Cadiz and Malaga are fast and well maintained.
